Experience

1.FULL STACK DEVELOPER

As a full-stack developer, you are proficient in both front-end and back-end development.

It means you can work on the client side (what users see) and the server side (the behind-the-scenes functionality).

2.Python & ML Enthusiast:

You have a strong interest and enthusiasm for Python programming language and Machine Learning. This suggests that you might be involved in developing applications or solutions that leverage python and machine learning technologies.

3.GDSC MEMBER

GDSC is a global program sponsored by Google Developers that offers a space for students to learn, grow, and collaborate on innovative projects and ideas. Our GDSC chapter at RGUKT Nuzvid is a vibrant community of tech enthusiasts who are passionate about exploring the latest advancements in technology and making a positive impact through their skills.

4.INFOTECHIES MEMBER

You are a part of the technology team at "INFOTECHIES CLUB." This could include responsibilities such as developing and maintaining technology solutions for the organization.
